OUR GOALS

- Studying the history of the Croatian people and reviving the memories of the famous Croats and events from the Croatian past, as well as pointing to the Croatian contribution to European and world heritage;
- Fostering Croatian folk customs, culture and history, as well as promoting Croatian national identity;
- Research activities on all topics from Croatian history with the emphasis on history of 19th and 20th century;
- Creating a database on the suffering of the Croatian people through the 20th century with the the victims' lists;
- Investigation of crimes committed against the Croat people in the Second World War, in the post-war period and in the Homeland War;
- Gathering the documents and testimonies;
- Promotion of commemorating of already known locations of the mass graves, as well as the research of the unknown ones, with the aim of promoting further research;
- Commitment to the freedom of research unburdened of political dogmas;
- Developing links and cooperation with emigrant and homeland organizations with similar goals.

OUR RESULTS

1. So far, we have participated in the preparation of 30 historical books. This number will increase to 40 books by the end of 2017.
 2. We have published 60 research papers, mostly on topics from modern Croatian history and politics.
 3. We have also published a large number of newspaper articles, of which 50 are dedicated to the analysis of Jasenovac myth and Dinko Šakić trial.
 4. We attended academic conferences and talks in Croatia, the UK, Portugal, Switzerland and elsewhere.
- In the past two years, we have more closely acquainted the public with our work (approximately 30 interviews and press releases) and intensified our work, especially regarding Jasenovac myth.

PLANS FOR 2017-2018

1. Completion and promotion of three books „The Victims of Solin 1941-1948“, „Imotska krajina in the Second World War and in the post-war period“ and „Post-war camp Jasenovac“.
2. Preparing new books including „Vrgorska krajina, Makarsko primorje and Poneretvlje in the Second World War and in the post-war period“ (spring 2018)
3. Collaboration on filming two documentary movies about communist crimes.
4. Publication of short articles, especially about Jasenovac camp, lustration and dealing with the past.
